

Benefit of Partner Universities

Visibility of your university's career support activities in the Dutch platform

Having logo of your university promoted on VSEACF 2022 event website

Increase your university brand awareness by inclusion in pre, during and post promotions in a multiple social media presence

Enhance the profile of your university by participating in the event activities i.e., career talk series, round table session

Escalate international exposure of your university to the Southeast Asia audience and participating companies